UnderClans PREVIEW

Alright, so this is something I've been thinking about for a bit, and I thought I'd give you guys a teaser. This won't be started for a while, but I will do it, I can assure you that. **

So, first, some explanation. **

I recently got into the Warrior Cats series, and although I've only just finished the first series and Firestar's quest, I'm still making my way through. The first series alone has given me enough to write a story, though. **

Also, after seeing Undertale AUs like Underfell, Underswap, and StoryShift, I thought 'Hey, why not make an AU?'

So I did. **

I have two AUs in my head right now, UnderClans being one of them. The other one is called UnderTake, which I'll write about later.
**

So, this is Underclans, a Warrior Cats and Undertale Crossover AU.
**

Oh, and yes, I know about Warrior's Tale, a different AU. I assure you mine is different. And if it isn't, please call me out.
**

Enjoy!

Long ago, two races of cats lived on Earth:

NORMAL CATS and MONSTER CATS

They lived in four clans among the forests or as pets.

One day, war broke out between the two races.

After a long battle, the normal cats were victorious.

They sealed the monster cats underground with a magic spell.

The monster cats built a society underground, hoping that maybe they would escape one day.

After many generations, they split up into Clans once more, and each claimed a part of the underground, following the traditions of their ancestors who lived on the surface.

And legends say that any cat who climbs Mt. Ebott is said to disappear.

Ta-Da!

*I know there are some cats in there you don't recognize, and that's because I needed to add more people in. So I took objects like The Locket or Worn Dagger and made then cats. ****

I also used literally every NPC in Snowdin except for one. Even the Inn Keeper's kid!

*Oh, and normal cats are basically the cats we have. Monster cats are cats that just have different colors of fur and eyes. I made them up. ****

*Well, tell me what you think. Keep in mind this won't be for a while. ****

See ya'll soon!
